

A Forwardian Photographer

Eric Goins

Eric is a New Yorker who moved to the Poconos in 2003 and commuted to work on Long Island for three years before retiring in 2006. After retirement he began to pursue a love of photography on a full time basis. He had been taking snapshots with a film camera for many years, but never had the time to devote to making the images that he really wanted to. With more time to devote to my pictures he discovered the world of digital photography and began to explore the digital darkroom. With a new enthusiasm about his pictures it has been a fantastic adventure recording all the sights that he has discovered traveling with the Pocono Photo Club and other groups here in the Stroudsburg area.

We are honored to present his work titled, “Charles Lloyd.”

You’ll be able to read his work in Sections G of our magazine through our link at: www.theforwardianartssociety.com/Forwardian-3-Contents.html.
