

A Forwardian Artist

Joan Polishook

As an Award winning artist, Joan expresses her love of country on paper and canvas in pen and ink, watercolor, oil and acrylic. A plein air painter, her work expresses what she sees and feels. The arts placed foremost within her entire formal education, leading to a BA in Art from CCNY, and to her career as an elementary school teacher.

A recent interest in writing has lead Joan to publish two heart-warming memoirs recounting the early experiences that shaped her as a person and influenced her as an artist. They are “The House on the Sixth Floor” and “Bouquet.” Both are available from www.Lulu.com and www.amazon.com

You can learn more about Joan and her accomplishments by exploring her Website at www.joanpolishook-art.com

We are honored to present her work titled, “End of Winter.”

You’ll be able to read her work in Sections C of our magazine through our link at: www.theforwardianartssociety.com/Forwardian-3-Contents.html.